

A complete Asset Management System developed specifically for the oil response industry

Manage availability, maintenance, employees and finance, from the only Asset Management System* that works for the entire organisation.

* The Opeam Asset Management System is subject to copyright.

- Web based, with 24/7 availability from any location
- Immediately locate all oil response assets and their standard operating procedures at multiple locations
- Immediately view all current trained personnel at multiple locations
- Real time tracking of the total costs of the response
- Management of maintenance team performance
- Maintenance scheduling and costing
- Equipment replacement dates, spare parts and availability status
- Asset financial management, including depreciation schedule
- Multiple levels of secure access

